

According to Florida Law, Kids Central is not able to keep any record regarding possession of firearms or how/where firearms are stored. It is the foster parent's responsibility to keep the firearm in a securely locked box, or container, or in a location which a reasonable person would believe to be secure or to secure it with a trigger lock, except when the foster parent is carrying the firearm on his or her body, or within such close proximity thereto, that he or she can retrieve and use it as easily and quickly as if he or she carried it on his or her body.
