

A health inspection must be completed on an annual basis by the Health Department in the county of residence. Satisfactory water results must be received for all homes with wells.